

---

Institutional Goals and Outcomes

Goal 6: Collaborate with the Community for the Public Good

Outcomes:

1. The university contributes to regional quality of life by engaging with the community through cultural, educational, and athletic events.
2. The university collaborates with the community to provide hands-on learning experiences for students.
3. The university responds to community needs through service engagement.
4. The university contributes to economic and workforce development.
5. The university's employees contribute to community advancement by sharing their expertise.